

Lynnwood

COMMUNITY PROFILE

Incorporated on April 23, 1959, the city of Lynnwood is situated upon what was once a former timber town. Lynnwood currently covers an area of 7.86 square miles, with more than 36,000 residents and 3,200 businesses.

Lynnwood is conveniently located 16 miles north of Seattle; 15 miles from Bellevue; 13 miles south of Everett; where I-5 and I-405 merge.

According to the City of Lynnwood, 12 percent of residents work within city limits, while approximately one-third of residents commute to Seattle for work and the rest commute to nearby cities of Everett, Bellevue, Edmonds and other communities. There are also major employers in Lynnwood including Comcast, Pemco, the Edmonds School District and Edmonds Community College.

While quality commercial and government services are a necessary element of modern day life, the natural features which attracted the original settlers to this area remain an important attraction for this city's present day residents. In addition to the 13 miles of trails through City of Lynnwood parks, in under 90 minutes, Steven's Pass, Snoqualmie Summit are quick drives to reach skiing, snowboarding, snowshoeing and cross country recreational areas.
